

THE COHEN'S REBUILDING SALE IS AT ITS BEST.

As yet thousands of dollars in merchandise, Monday will see new price reductions throughout every part of the house. There is no quarter given, no matter how good or saleable the goods may be. EVERY ONE DOLLAR IS LIABLE TO COUNT TWO. Every article almost that you have seen at one price has slipped down to another. The thousands of best goods that you would buy at full price are among the unnumbered lots at one-half or thereabout. A slaughter is instituted from the carpet floor down to the basement. You want to be here while the goods are here that you can use. Values have no longer any set price. All the store's transactions center to the New Store Opening with a New Stock.

VAUDEVILLE BILL ON CASINO BOARDS

The Varieties Have the Stage for a Week at Summer Theatre.

Vaudeville is to hold away at the Casino all this week, when the management will present a bill which they are confident will please the public. Vaudeville has always been popular at the Casino, and the bill which comes here

Monday night is not likely to prove an exception to the rule.

Leo Dervalto, the headliner, is one of the greatest equilibrista to-day. On a four-foot globe he ascends a spiral tower some 20 feet high, performing a number of difficult feats while making the trip up and down. Professor Dervalto is the originator of the act and has been seen in many of the principal cities of the country.

"The Sailor and the Horse" is the name of the stunt which is portrayed by the Harry Lafore Company, which is composed of four people and a horse. The skit is said to be one of the funniest seen on any stage and has been playing the leading New York theatres for several seasons. Montgomery & Pearce, a musical team, will present a new act in the way of a novelty which has not been seen in this section. They are ranked with the top-notchers.

A singing and dancing turn will be presented by Donnavant & Arnold, which will embrace several new songs and popular dances. Arthur Kirby will do a turn in black form doing a musical act and some comedy work. Other members are expected to be presented when the curtain raises. The bill is varied and with a great majority of those who are to take part new to this section of the country. It is the first visit to the South of some of the performers.

Richardson-Lipscomb.

Mr. John C. Richardson and Miss Lilian M. Lipscomb, of Farmville, were married Thursday in Milton, N. C. The Rev. Dr. Harding, of Milton, performed the ceremony.

NUCLEUS OF ANOTHER NEW VIRGINIA TOWN

A Large Power-House to Be Built at Grayson-town.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RADFORD, VA., August 12.—The Grayson Electrical Corporation will build a power-house at Grayson-town, eight miles from Radford, which will light the town of Christiansburg, Christiansburg and Riner, furnish power for a contemplated trolley line from Cambria to Christiansburg, besides such factories as may be established along the line.

The power-house will be built just above the flour mill of J. H. Grayson, and will be in operation, it is thought, by the first of November. The company has a contract with the town of Christiansburg for the exclusive right of furnishing lights and power for the town for thirty years. Childrens are four miles from Grayson-town, Riner, seven, and Christiansburg twenty. A trolley line from Cambria to Christiansburg would be a godsend, Cambria being the railroad station of the town.

There is a magnificent water-power at Grayson-town, and the plant should be a great success. The dam across Little River was built about sixty-five years ago by Mr. Crockett Grayson and his brother, John, well-to-do farmers of Montgomery. They also built the flour mill at that time, which descended to Mr. J. H. Grayson, its present owner. Grayson-town is a tiny village along the Montgomery bank of Little River. Just beyond, on the Pulaski side, is the picturesque village of Snowville, old and moss-grown in appearance.

The Grayson Electrical Corporation has the following officers: President, Guy Grayson; Vice-President, W. C. Grayson. The directors consist of the foregoing gentlemen, with R. B. Cox and H. B. Grayson.

Mr. Robert A. Nye, a son of Dr. George Nye of Wytheville, has returned from Tombstone, Arizona, after an absence of fourteen years, during which time his family has heard nothing from him, not even knowing where he was. He is an expert mineralogist and wealthy mine owner, possessing a 1-12 interest in fourteen copper mines near Tombstone. Mr. Nye will remain in Virginia two months. At present he is the guest of his uncle, Dr. W. P. Nye. He was only a boy when he left home, and is still quite young.
